COUNCILMEMBER DJOU: LOOKING FORWARD TO WORKING WITH REP. ANNE STEVENS

Today Councilmember Charles K. Djou (Waikiki, East Honolulu) issued a statement applauding Gov. Linda Lingle's appointment of Anne Stevens to the Hawaii State House of Representatives to replace Galen Fox.

"Gov. Lingle has made an excellent appointment and Anne will make an outstanding representative. I look forward to working with Anne and advocating for our common constituents. Having previously served in the State House, I personally understand the importance of a good working relationship between the City Council and the Legislature. Anne's previous service as a Coast Guard officer gives her insight to the shoreline and harbor issues facing Waikiki, the Ala Wai and Kakaako. Similarly, Anne's background as Sen. Gordon Trimble's office manager gives her a good understanding of the political dynamics of Waikiki."

The Waikiki area is currently represented by Councilmember Djou on the Honolulu City Council and will now be represented by Rep. Stevens in the State House.
